Robert Dackeskog appointed new Director for Duni's business area Consumer

Robert Dackeskog has been appointed new Director Business Area Consumer at Duni. He replaces Ketil Årdal who left his position for another appointment in January 2012. In his position Robert Dackeskog will be heading the Duni Group's business towards the consumer market.

Robert, (40), holds an MSc in business administration from the University of Gothenburg and comes from a position as Managing Director Denmark / Foodservice & Export Director within Findus Sweden. He has a solid experience from both marketing and sales within the grocery retail trade mostly from a number of positions, including international ones, within the Findus group.

Robert joins Duni August 6, 2012 and will be part of Duni's Management Team.
